Intro: [G] one strum then [C] [G] [C] [G] [C] [C/G] [D] [G] (x2)

Have you [G] ever seen Sydney from a 747 at night, yea-[Em]ah
[C] Sydney shines [G] such a beautiful [D] light
And [G] I can see Bondi through my window way off to the right, yea-[Em]ah
And a [G] curling waves on a [D] distant break and the [G] sleeping city just a[C]bout to wake.
Have you [G] ever seen Sydney from a [D] 747 at [G] night

Riff: [C] [G] [C] [G] [D] [G]

Now the [G] red roofs are catchin' the first rays of the morning sun, yea-[Em]ah
My [C] eyes are full of sand [G] from my midnight [D] run
And the [G] Captain says belt up now, we'll be touchin' down in ten, yea-[Em]ah
So, I [G] press my seat and I [D] straighten up,
I [G] fold my tray and I [C] stash my cup
As the [G] red roofs are catchin' the first [D] rays of the morning [G] sun

Riff: [C] [G] [C] [G] [C] [C/G] [D] [G] (x2)

Have you [G] ever fallen for a girl with different coloured eyes, yea-[Em]ah
And [C] sent her letters [G] full of [D] lies
Have you [G] ever longed to see the sun fall where it used to rise, yea-[Em]ah
And [G] quit your job [D] on the spot,
[G] bought that ticket, yeah [C] spent the lot
Have you [G] ever fallen for a [D] girl with different coloured [G] eyes

Riff: [C] [G] [C] [G] [C] [C/G] [D] [G] (x2)

Outro:

Have you [G] ever seen Sydney from a 747 at night [Em] (x3)
