

NZ14 LOVE IN A FOWLHOUSE, Garner Wayne 1963

Intro : G three bars

CHORUS:

G
I fell in love with a pretty little hen,
D7 G
I've asked her once, but I'll ask her again. Eerr Eroo!
G
Oh! won't you be my wife?" "Buk Buk Buk Buk Buk!" she replied:
C G
"I'll be yours and I'll be true, I'll lay lots of eggs for you,
G D7 G
I'll be yours for the rest of my life."

Verse1

C G
I remember the day and it's not so far away
D7
When they released you as a pullet in the pen,
G C G
There were twenty others too but none so nice as you
D7 G
I wanted to perch with you right then.
G C G
You make me so proud when you go Buk! Buk! Buk! out loud
D7
After you have laid your daily egg
G C G
And when the wheat is thrown on the floor of our dear home.
D7 G
I'll be yours until the master takes my head.

CHORUS:

G
I fell in love with a pretty little hen,
D7 G
I've asked her once, but I'll ask her again. Eerr Eroo!
G
Oh! won't you be my wife?" "Buk Buk Buk Buk Buk!" she replied:
C G
"I'll be yours and I'll be true, I'll lay lots of eggs for you,
G D7 G
I'll be yours for the rest of my life."

Verse 2

When the day begins to break, and we all begin to wake
C G
D7

I will Eur! Uooero! each early morn.

When our food is in the tray you'll go Buk! Buk! Buk! at me,
G C G
D7 G

To herald that another day has dawned.

When you sit there on the nest and you try your very best
G C G
D7

To lay a double yolker just for me,

We will raise a family and what a blessing it will be,
G C G
D7 G

To raise good chicks that Cock a Doodle Do!.

CHORUS:

I fell in love with a pretty little hen,
G
D7 G

I've asked her once, but I'll ask her again. Eerr Eero!
