

NZ22 Tea at Te Kuiti – Ken Avery (Sung in a bad NZ accent)

INTRO: D G C (last line of verse)

Verse 1

I'm havin' tea at Te Kuiti with my sweetie
And then a row at Rotorua on the waves
Do a tour of Turangi, when the Maoris have a hangi
Then I'll wind up in the old Waitomo caves.
I'm go'ng'ta tread the narrow path at Ngar'awahia
And dash to Dannevirke before the beer is cut
I'm going'to town at Taum'runui, wander down the Whanganui
Then I'm go'ng'ta live it up at Upper Hutt.

Verse 2

I'm go'ng'ta travel in my car to Invercargill
I'm go'ng'ta meet a man at Manapouri Lake
Though I'm not the one to boast, I've been toasted on the Coast
And washed ashore at Taylor's big Mistake
I've eaten oysters in the stew at Stewart Island
And met a mutton-birder down at Foveaux Strait (breathe)
I've tried to bluff them at the Bluff, each time I said I'd had enough
They put another dozen oysters on me plate.

Verse 3

I'm go'ng'ta ^C canter on the plains at ^{G7} Canterbury

I'm go'ng'ta ^{D7} rue the day I leave ^C ol' Oamaru

I'll spend the winter on ^D the inter-island ferry, ^{G7} makin' merry

An' wait for North and South to ^C come in view.

Now you c'n see a lot that's new ^{C7} in ol' New Zealand ^F

You c'n keep your Port of Spain ^F an' Mexico (breathe) ^C

But if you plan to go away, ^F down ^C A-o-tee-a-ro-a way

^D A Kiwi always tells you where to go ^G ^C (Look out for Trentham)

^D A Kiwi always tells you where to go. ^G ^C (and Karamea)

^D A Kiwi always tells you where to go. ^G ^C (Mokihinui)

^D A Kiwi always tells you where to go ^G ^C
